

Gallaudet Academic Bowl Midwest Regional Competition

February 19th - February 22nd, 2015 at the Kentucky School for the Deaf

This is a very EXCITING time for us KSD Colonels! Kentucky School for the Deaf (KSD) is hosting the Midwest Regional Academic Bowl sponsored by Gallaudet University in February, 2015 here in Danville and preparations are already underway. All schools with DEAF and HARD of HEARING HIGH SCHOOL students have the opportunity to form a team of FOUR players to join in on the fun! After you have registered by October 3rd and have been accepted to participate in the Academic Bowl, Gallaudet University will send you a letter congratulating and welcoming you to the 2014 – 2015 Academic Bowl! Providing that you register early enough and are accepted, there will be a $300.00 registration fee due by October 24th. Furthermore, the Regional Pool drawing video will be posted on November 4th. The Team Roster photo is due four weeks prior to the Academic Bowl. Below is a link to gain a better understanding of what the Academic Bowl is all about, as well as the history of the competition.

http://www.gallaudet.edu/academic_bowl.html

We also encourage you to visit:

<http://www.gallaudet.edu/>

and search for Academic Bowl.

If you're interested in forming a high school team to represent your school, below is the link used for registration:

http://www.gallaudet.edu/academic_bowl/2014-2015_registration.html

The link is LIVE, and registration must be submitted by Friday, October 3rd, 2014 before 4:30pm Eastern Daylight Time.

Hope to see you all here at our beautiful campus at Kentucky School for the Deaf in February!